WE KNOW WHAT MATTERS MOST

We go above and beyond to forge partnerships that improve and facilitate the delivery of a superior product.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP

Aclar film has been the industry leader for more than 40 years and is part of the Solstice brand, a company built on a proven legacy of innovation.

We strive for advancement in a range of product areas, like aerospace, home and building, performance materials, and safety/production. This feeds into our long-lasting market standing, influencing all of the products associated with the brand, giving you the benefit of intensive R&D investment to deliver the best product every time.

FLEXIBILITY

We handle any challenge with pharmaceutical packaging solutions to suit each customer's needs during all development stages - from pre to post launch.

Solstice adapts to your packaging requirements and supports you and your business, positioning stakeholders for success at every step of the process while accelerating time to market.

CONSISTENCY AND CONTROL

We make performance a priority so much so that our customers come to expect it, no matter the circumstance or packaging requirement.

Our ability to repeat top performance allows us to offer complete control over the supply chain, ensuring the safe and secure delivery of your product with fewer obstacles getting in the way.

TRUSTED, RELIABLE SUPPORT

Our support offerings elevate key team members through reliable service that directly (and indirectly) impacts performance and success.

Our team is comprised of experts from all disciplines, so you know you are receiving top-notch service that bolsters your brand as well as your bottom line.

Marketing teams can trust that Aclar film improves user experience and visual appeal, helping to retain patients while adding to top-line growth. Procurement can rely on lower costs in the long-run from operational efficiency. By driving the success of each stakeholder, Solstice Aclar Film influences the greater team as a whole, ensuring a seamless process.
